

Living Shoreline Course for Collier and Lee Counties @Rookery Bay Research Reserve

Photo Credit
Marissa Figueroa

Who is this course for?

Anyone looking to learn the details of how to permit and install living shorelines - marine contractors, landscape architects, property owners, and all others interested in promoting living shorelines.

CEUs available: CEUs Offered Society for Ecological Restoration CERP Program (6)

<https://www.ser.org/general/custom.asp?page=CERPPProgram>

Florida Nursery, Growers, and Landscape Association (8)

<https://www.fngla.org/professional-development/maintain-your-certification>

Details

$50 includes course registration, manual, and lunches. Course is in-person and consists of classroom and site visit time.

Instructors Armando Ubeda (Sea Grant), Mike Sipos (Sea Grant), Michael Taylor (USACE), Jonathan Guinn (FDEP)

The University of Florida is committed to providing universal access to all our events. For disability accommodations such as sign language interpreters and listening devices, please contact Living Shoreline Program Assistant Mandy Baily mbaily@ufl.edu, (321) 985-3412 at least 1 week in advance. Advance notice is necessary to arrange for some accessibility needs.

To Register: <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/611050026077>

Wednesday and Thursday
June 14th and 15th 2023
8:30 am – 4:30 pm

Rookery Bay
Research Reserve
300 Tower Road
Naples

For more information:
mbaily@ufl.edu
(321) 985-3412

